

1. Structuralism focuses on the study of:

- a) an author's life
- b) underlying structures in texts
- c) the book market
- d) grammar only

Answer: b

2. 'The Death of the Author' was written by:

- a) Jacques Derrida
- b) Roland Barthes
- c) Michel Foucault
- d) Sigmund Freud

Answer: b

3. Deconstruction is most closely associated with:

- a) Ferdinand de Saussure
- b) Jacques Derrida
- c) Karl Marx
- d) Sigmund Freud

Answer: b

4. Marxist criticism primarily examines:

- a) literary form
- b) class and ideology in texts
- c) rhythm and meter
- d) printing history

Answer: b

5. Feminist literary criticism focuses on:

- a) gender representations in texts
- b) punctuation
- c) typography
- d) paper quality

Answer: a

6. Psychoanalytic criticism applies the ideas of:

- a) Isaac Newton
- b) Sigmund Freud
- c) Charles Darwin
- d) Albert Einstein

Answer: b

7. Postcolonialism studies the impact of:

- a) geography on climate
- b) colonialism on cultures and literatures
- c) currency exchange
- d) ocean currents

Answer: b

8. According to Saussure, a linguistic sign consists of:

- a) sound and sense
- b) signifier and signified
- c) noun and verb
- d) subject and object

Answer: b

9. Reader-response theory emphasizes the role of:

- a) the publisher
- b) the author
- c) the reader
- d) the critic

Answer: c

10. New Criticism insists that the focus of analysis is:

- a) the reader's feelings
- b) the text itself
- c) the author's biography
- d) the historical context

Answer: b

11. Briefly explain the main idea of deconstruction.

(Write your answer in the space provided.)

12. How does feminist literary criticism approach a text?

(Write your answer in the space provided.)