

1. Which view shows a building as seen from directly above?

- a) Plan view
- b) Elevation view
- c) Section view
- d) Perspective view

Answer: a

2. Which line type represents hidden edges in a drawing?

- a) Dashed line
- b) Solid line
- c) Dotted line
- d) Wavy line

Answer: a

3. What does a scale of 1:100 mean?

- a) 1 unit on paper equals 100 units in reality
- b) 100 units on paper equals 1 unit
- c) 1 unit equals 1 meter
- d) A 100 percent enlargement

Answer: a

4. Which software is commonly used for architectural drafting?

- a) AutoCAD
- b) Photoshop
- c) Excel
- d) PowerPoint

Answer: a

5. Which drawing shows the interior cut through a building?

- a) Section
- b) Plan
- c) Site plan
- d) Perspective

Answer: a

6. What is an elevation drawing?

- a) A vertical view of a building facade
- b) A view from above
- c) A cut through the building
- d) A 3D model

Answer: a

7. Which symbol indicates the direction of north on a site plan?

- a) North arrow
- b) Scale bar
- c) Section line
- d) Dimension line

Answer: a

8. What are construction lines used for?

- a) Guides for accurate drafting
- b) Final outlines
- c) Shading
- d) Dimensioning only

Answer: a

9. Which unit is standard for architectural drawings?

- a) Millimeters
- b) Kilometers
- c) Liters
- d) Grams

Answer: a

10. What is a datum in architectural drawing?

- a) A reference point or level
- b) A type of roof
- c) A building material
- d) A window style

Answer: a

11. Explain the difference between a plan view and an elevation view.

(Write your answer in the space provided.)

12. Describe the standard layers you would set up in an AutoCAD drawing for a building.

(Write your answer in the space provided.)